Overview | Admissions criteria | Student profile | Career possibilities

Offer rounds: 4 Oct 2018, 16 Jan 2019, 6 Jun 2019

Course outline: Students gain an understanding of the core concepts of commerce including accounting, economics, business statistics and management, and build on these foundation studies from second year with their chosen area of specialisation. Students are given opportunities for practical work experience and career skills development as part of their study. Graduates are equipped with the technical knowledge and skills to pursue a career in accounting, economics, finance or financial planning. Students can complete a second major in areas including international business, management, marketing, or politics and public policy. For more course information, visit Bachelor of Commerce at GU Nathan or Bachelor of Commerce at GU Gold Coast or Bachelor of Commerce at GU Logan.

Note: The Logan program is taught over three trimesters each year, allowing students to graduate in two years. Fast-track options are available for students at Nathan and Gold Coast by studying over three trimesters.

The major offer round for Oct 2019 intakes will be in October 2019. In this Admission period early offers will be made until the end of July 2019, however offers will also be made in August and September 2019 prior to the main round in October.

Majors: Nathan and Gold Coast: accounting; economics; finance; financial planning. Logan: accounting; financial planning.

Combined diploma/degrees: For Nathan and Gold Coast, refer to entries under Griffith College for: D Commerce/B Commerce; D Hotel Management/B Commerce.

Deferment

Deferment lets you delay starting your course. Usually, you can defer for up to a year, but some institutions let you defer for longer. Others do not allow deferment.

In most cases, you can defer when you respond to your QTAC offer. The institution contacts you to advise what to do next.

Institution deferment policies

Select an institution for information on their deferment policy.

Australian Catholic University Hide

You can defer your undergraduate course for up to one year. Deferment is not available for postgraduate courses.
