

St John's Anglican College

Homestay Family Terms and Conditions

Please read and sign the Homestay Terms and Conditions and return to the College either in person or via email at Homestay@sjic.qld.edu.au.

General Responsibilities

The Homestay Family must:

- comply with the Terms and Conditions of this document and all applicable College policies and procedures as notified by the College including the College Homestay Code of Conduct;
- complete a Risk Management Strategy in accordance with the requirements of the Blue Card Services in a form that is specified by the College;
- provide a yearly update of Homestay documentation below:
 - ✓ Homestay Family Application Form;
 - ✓ Homestay Family Terms and Conditions;
 - ✓ Homestay Self Risk Assessment Form;
 - ✓ Copy of current homes insurance for international student;
 - ✓ Copy of the Pool Safety Certificate (Forms 23) if applicable;
 - ✓ Homestay Code of Conduct;
 - ✓ Volunteers and Visitors Guide;
- attend an annual Student Protection and Homestay Meeting;
- allow the College to complete an annual Homestay inspection. In most cases, the College will provide 7 days' notice to arrange an inspection. In the event of an emergency or critical incident, you must allow the College to inspect your home immediately;
- ensure that the Homestay Residence is suitable for habitation and complies with all applicable laws and standards;
- not host any more than two international students enrolled with any education provider at the same time;
- provide us with up to date details of all residents in your home, including short term residents;
- notify us as soon as possible in advance before a person moves in to or out of your home;
- notify us in writing, 4 weeks' notice, if you propose to materially change your home e.g. renovating or relocating.

Blue Cards and Exemption Cards

- ensure that each adult occupant (18 years or older, excluding other international students) residing in the Homestay, holds a Blue Card at all times;
- consent to Blue Card Services providing advice to the College of any changes to the status of a Blue Card held by the Homestay Family;
- you must immediately notify the College if there is a change in the police information for you or any person residing in your home who holds a Blue Card or Exemption Card;
- you must ensure that your family renews their Blue Card as soon as possible, when the College email you a reminder to complete an application. Blue Cards must be renewed 30 days prior to expiry. If the College has not received an application for renewal by this time, your student will be removed from your home and relocated to a temporary approved Homestay until your new Blue Card has been approved and issued, and the College notified by Blue Card Services.

Accommodation

The Homestay Family must provide the student with appropriate accommodation and living assistance, including but not limited to:

- full board in a clean, tidy household with access to shared living areas that has been approved as the Homestay Residence by the College;
- a safe, secure, private bedroom with suitable storage space for clothes, personal effects and study materials;
- suitable facilities for study including a desk, chair and desk lamp;
- three (3) meals daily (breakfast, lunch and dinner) and morning tea and snacks. Please ensure students are provided with nutritious food and reasonable access to other appropriate food as may be requested.
- access to bathroom and laundry facilities;
- access to a landline telephone (or suitable alternative) in the Homestay Residence;
- access to household items, such as towels, sheets, blankets and eating /cooking utensils;
- any keys, alarms or passwords required for the student to have free access to the Homestay Residence;
- a general orientation to the local area and community facilities available;
- if the Homestay Family proposes to materially change the Homestay Residence (including but not limited to altering the home or the address), the Homestay must notify the College four weeks in advance in writing;
- advise the College as soon as reasonable practicable of any wilful damage done to the Homestay Residence by the student.

Travel and Activities

- we understand that students are required to complete the College's Student Holiday/Travel form 1 month prior to the holiday break, to advise the College of their travel arrangements during term breaks;
- it is the Homestay's responsibility to have knowledge of these dates and to ensure that the student has handed in the form to the College;
- if the student is travelling outside the holiday break, you need to contact the College directly to confirm that permission has been given by the College to the student for the dates requested;
- please do not rely on students regarding term dates, going out unsupervised, travelling with unauthorised person/s. It is the responsibility of the Homestay Family to contact the College directly to confirm this information;
- if the student is intending to travel with another person/s, the parents of the students must contact the Head of International College (e.g. via email, webchat, mobile) to confirm the arrangements.

You must:

- ensure your student has safe and appropriate transport to and from the College, extra-curricular activities, medical appointments and other routine activities;
- ensure that your student obtains the College's written consent before participating in any non-routine travel and/or activities (including any non-routine travel with you);
- not permit your student to undertake high-risk activities; and
- immediately notify us if you become aware that your student intends to participate or has participated in a high-risk activity, non-routine travel or non-routine activity without our approval.

Supervision and Care

The Homestay Family must ensure that the student is appropriately supervised at all times throughout the duration of the Homestay including by:

- maintaining suitable supervision of the student outside of College hours;
- monitoring the student's general welfare including by reference to the student's social activities;
- using all reasonable endeavours to obtain detailed information regarding the student's proposed activities and travel from the student;
- confirming with the student and the Head of International College where necessary, that appropriate approval has been obtained by the College prior to the student participating in travel and activities;
- notifying the College if the Homestay Family is temporarily unable to provide accommodation for, or supervision of the student;
- providing four weeks' notice in advance to the College if you are unable to host the student due to a family holiday or other personal commitments. The College will organise a temporary approved Homestay for the student in your absence. Homestay families are not permitted to organise these temporary arrangements or contact other families themselves;
- not allow your student to be unsupervised overnight;
- only permit your student to stay away overnight or undertake any non-routine travel or activity if your student has the College's written approval;
- immediately advise the College if you have any concerns for your student's health, safety or wellbeing;
- never leave your student to supervise younger children, even for a short time.

The College Requirements

The Homestay Family must:

- assist the student to participate in extracurricular activities arranged or recommended by the College;
- assist and support the student's attendance at the College and support the completion of homework assignments and assist where required;
- assist your student to attend College on time;
- as soon as reasonably practicable, initiate discussion with the College if the Homestay Family has concerns regarding the student's academic progress, attendance, personal welfare or wellbeing;
- attend interviews conducted by the College in relation to the student;
- notify the College if your student is late to class.

Medical and Emergency Situations

The Homestay Family must:

- if any serious incident, accident or medical emergency involving the student occurs, promptly notify the College;
- notify the College if your student suffers harm, an illness or injury;
- assist the student to access any necessary medical, dental, hospital or other health-related services including by making appointments and, where necessary, accompany the student to those appointments;
- promptly notify the College of the results of any medical treatment or tests involving the student;
- where practicable, arrange for invoices in connection with the medical expenses to be sent directly to the college for processing of payment;
- notify the College directly if your student will be absent from College due to illness. Students are not permitted to contact the College themselves to report their absence.

Safety

The Homestay must:

- notify us immediately if you suspect or become aware that your student has been harmed or is at risk of harm;
- notify the College immediately if your student reports to you that they or any student in our Homestay program has been harmed or is at risk of harm;
- inform the College immediately if you suspect or become aware that your student has engaged in or is at risk of engaging in inappropriate or unlawful sexual conduct;
- notify us immediately if you suspect or become aware that any person has been harmed by or is at risk of harm from your student;
- notify the College immediately if you suspect or become aware that your student has been involved in a breach of the Student Code of Behaviour Policy (for example, drinking alcohol, use of illegal drugs, breach of the Travel/Activities clause in this document).

Homestay Code of Conduct

The Homestay Family must:

- ensure that all people in the home should act in a way that would be appropriate when viewed by a third party (e.g. do not put themselves in a position where they are vulnerable to accusations of wrongdoing). For example, by ensuring that:
 - your student is not alone with you or another (e.g. another child) in a bedroom or bathroom with the door closed;
 - your student is not permitted access to alcohol or offered alcohol by you or your guests.
- comply with the Homestay Code of Conduct as issued by the College.

Homestay Fees

- the College will, on behalf of the student, pay to the College the Homestay Fess which will be paid to the Homestay Family on a fortnightly basis;
- the College requires students to pay all tuition and Homestay fees directly to the College;
- Homestay families should not receive tuition or Homestay fees directly from the student;
- Homestay families will be emailed a remittance slip for the fortnightly payment displaying dates;
- Homestay families must notify the College if their email address details have changed;
- if the College overpays you, we may reduce your future Homestay fees by the amount of the overpayment or require you to repay the overpayment to us within 14 days. The overpayment will be a debt due and owing to us by you;
- if you have a question or concern about the payment of Homestay fees, you must contact us.

Behaviour Management

- you must notify us if you encounter a behaviour management issue that you are unable to resolve informally with your student. We have a range of strategies to deal with student misbehaviour. In serious cases, your student's participation in the Homestay program or their enrolment with us may be cancelled;
- you must never subject your student to physical punishment or verbal abuse.

Communication with the College

The Homestay Family must:

- provide the College with Homestay contact details and keep the details current;
- advise the College at least 2 weeks in advance of any changes to the household occupants of the Homestay Residence, or as soon as practicable if advance notice is not possible;
- use all reasonable endeavours to attend all relevant meetings and information sessions arranged by the College in relation to the Homestay Program;
- for the purposes of assisting the College to monitor the student's general welfare, meet with the Homestay Coordinator;
- allow the College to access the Homestay Residence for the purposes of conducting periodic assessments of the Homestay Family's compliance with the terms and conditions of this agreement and the ongoing suitability of the accommodation for the student.

Moving a Student

Moving a student by the College

- we may move your student from your home if we provide you with two (2) weeks prior written notice or as mutually agreed between the College and the Homestay Family;
- we may move your student from your home immediately and without notice if we believe there are circumstances that warrant urgent action. Circumstances that warrant urgent action may include:
 - if we suspect or become aware that your student may be at risk of harm (without conducting an investigation into the truth of any allegations or concerns);
 - if there is a breach of this agreement;
 - if there is a breach of strategy;
 - if you fail to ensure that the information we hold about you is correct, complete and current;
 - in an emergency or critical incident.

Moving a student at the Homestay's request

- if you are unable to host your student for any reason you must notify the College as soon as possible;
- if you are able, but would prefer not to host your student, you may request the College to move your student temporarily or permanently by giving at least 2 (2) weeks written notice. We will use our best endeavours to move your student to a different home;
- we will not move students at your request within the first four (4) weeks of a Homestay placement unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Termination / Withdrawal / Suspension / Cancellation from the College Homestay Program

Withdrawal by the Homestay Family

- if you do not have a student living with you, you may withdraw from the Homestay program at any time by providing two (2) weeks prior written notice to the College;
- if you have a student living with you, you may withdraw from the Homestay program at any time by providing four (4) weeks prior written notice to the College.

Suspension

- if you are in breach of this Agreement we may give you a notice explaining what you must do to remedy the breach and we may suspend your registration until the breach has been remedied;
- if we suspend your registration we will move your Student out of your home;
- you are not entitled to Homestay fees for a payment period in which we suspend your registration. Any Homestay fees paid to you for a payment period in which we suspend your registration must be repaid to us as an overpayment;
- if you have been provided written notice by the College regarding renewal of your Blue Card, and you have not completed and submitted the application 30 days prior to your card expiring, your student will be removed from your home until your new Blue Card has been approved and issued, and the College notified by Blue Card Services.

Termination / Cancellation

We may immediately terminate this agreement and we may cancel your registration as a Homestay Family if you:

- fail to comply with a notice to remedy a breach;
- commit repeated breaches;
- commit a material breach;
- commit a breach that is incapable of remedy;
- fail to comply with Homestay compliance as required by the College and Queensland Legislation;
- failure to attend the annual Student Protection and Homestay Meeting;
- completion and submission of all documentation relating to the Homestay College program.

Complaints

If you have a complaint about your student or the Homestay program, you may notify the College and we will try to resolve the complaint informally.

If your complaint cannot be resolved informally, you may submit a complaint in writing by;

email to the Principal: MMclvor@sjac.qld.edu.au with “complaint – Homestay Family” in the subject line of your email; or by post addressed to the Principal, to St John’s Anglican College, PO box 4078, Forest Lake QLD 4078

Student Placements

- St John’s Anglican College do not guarantee that we will place students with you or that a student will stay with you for the duration of their program with the College;
- the College endeavours to allocate students to Homestay families based on student requests and suitability.

Insurance and Damage

- the Homestay Family (home owner / rental property) must obtain and maintain at all times, adequate home and/or contents insurance (including public liability insurance of no less than $20 million) to cover all insurable losses that may be incurred to the Homestay Residence, to the full replacement value (“insurance”);
- Homestay Families are required to submit certificate of insurance at time of registration, and every year upon renewal;

- check whether your policy of insurance covers you for injury to your student while in your care or damage a student may cause to your property;
- discuss your individual insurance requirements with your insurer to ensure you have adequate cover;
- advise the College as soon as reasonably practicable of any damage done to your property caused by your student.

Release, Discharge and Indemnity

You release, discharge and indemnify the College (including our employees, contractors, volunteers and agents) against all liability, loss, costs and expenses (including legal fees, costs and disbursements) ("Claims") arising from or incurred in connection with your or your Student's participation in the Homestay program, except to the extent that the Claims were caused or contributed to by the College's negligent acts or omissions.

Governing Laws (Compliance)

The Homestay Family must comply with any laws, standards or codes relevant to your obligations under this Agreement.

No representation or reliance

The Homestay Family acknowledge and confirm that you do not enter into the Homestay program in reliance on any representation or other inducement by or on behalf of us, except for representations or inducements expressly set out in this Agreement.

No Agency

You must not act as or represent yourself to be our agent. You cannot promise or consent to anything on behalf of the College (including your Student's College, St John's Anglican College or the Department of Education and Training).

Changes to the Terms and Conditions of this Agreement for Homestay Families

These Terms and Conditions for Homestay Families may be amended by the College from time to time. Any changes will be the same for all Homestay Families. We will provide the Homestay families with at least three (3) months' notice before any changes take effect.

Your continued participation in the Homestay program after the changes take effect will be treated as your agreement to the changes.

If you do not agree with the changes, you may withdraw from the Homestay program before the changes take effect (see 'Withdrawal by the Homestay Family').

Privacy

Homestay Family Information

- you must ensure that the information we hold about you is correct, complete and current;
- you must notify us if there is a change to any of the information that you provided to us.

Your Privacy
